PARKING

The school has received a number of complaints from local residents about parents/carers who park outside their houses, blocking access to their driveways. One resident on the Old Ford Housing estate said that a parent had parked in their allocated bay and they were unable to reach their house!

Please:

- DO NOT stop on the double yellow/zig zag lines outside the school to drop off or collect your pupils
- DO NOT drive onto the pavement in front of the staff parking area - this is very dangerous
- DO NOT park in residents' parking bays or block access to their driveways

We are working with Tower Hamlets council parking enforcement to stop these dangerous practices. Our priority is the safety of your children.

WELL DONE TO TWO OLD FORD PUPILS

We were lucky enough to be selected by Sensei Qwareeq to represent Palestine in the World Karate Championships in Bydgoszcz Poland in the Easter holidays. We worked very hard with our teacher and it paid off. Hamza got one gold medal and one bronze medal. Eesa got two gold medals and one bronze. We also got to take part and do a Bunkai demonstration in the opening ceremony. We got lots of applause and cheering. We were the youngest people there and everybody wanted to take photos with us. We were very happy and felt very lucky.
